

-  Ardgillan Castle
-  Information Point
-  Toilets
-  Fountain
-  Woodland
-  Rose Garden
-  Ice House
-  Car Park
-  Coffee Shop
-  National Potentilla Collection

- 1 Sycamore
- 2 Elder
- 3 Beech
- 4 Ash
- 5 Birch Grove
- 6 Elm
- 7 Griselinia Grove
- 8 Oak
- 9 Chestnut
- 10 Hazel Grove
- 11 Hornbeam
- 12 Fairy Orchard
- 13 Holly
- 14 Arbutus

Ardgillan Fairy Tree Trail

TREE TRAIL QUIZ

1. What Musical Instrument is made from Sycamore Wood? _____. 2. This tree offers protection from _____ & _____. 3. _____ is known as the God of Beech trees. 4. In Ireland, Ash is a symbol of _____, _____ & _____. 5. Birch twigs were used by witches to make their _____. 6. The first _____ were made by Elm wood. 7. Griselinia is a shrub native to _____. 8. An oak tree can live for more than _____ yrs.	9. The fruit of a Horse Chestnut fruit is called a _____. 10. Which story in Irish mythology features the Hazel? _____. 11. What did the Romans use Hornbeam wood to make? _____. 12. What traditional Christmas plant grows on the Apple tree? _____. 13. The Holly tree is widely renowned to protect a house from _____. 14. The Strawberry tree is most commonly found in _____ Co. Kerry. 15. What was Evergreen Oak used for in ancient Greece? _____.
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------